

Read this week's edition of the Community Game update.

Distribution list: Tuesday 8 February

Constituent Bodies Chairs, Honorary Secretaries, Treasurers, Communications

Liaison, Data Officers

Club Presidents, Chairs, Honorary Secretaries, Data Officers

Stay up to date with news about the community game by following @RFU on Twitter

here.

Back In The Game Update

Read Online

1. ACTION REQUIRED

Regulation Reminder - Half Game Rule, Tours, Young Match Officials

As we head into the final part of the season, a reminder that clubs must have Constituent Body approval before touring or hosting tours. Also, reminders about the half game rule for age grade teams and support required for Young Match Officials.

2. ACTION IF OF INTEREST

Back In The Game - Player Focus

Catch up on our 'Back in the Game' webinar explaining how to get involved in the campaign over the next few weeks, and hear more about how flexible playing offers can help keep games on.

Webinars & workshops

A round-up of the latest webinars and workshops to support clubs, including information ahead of The Touch Union's official launch next month.

2024 Guinness Six Nations Ticket Allocation Update

A reminder for clubs to update their fixtures and record results in the GMS system for all club games. By doing this, it will help with the indicative allocation assigned to clubs this summer for the 2024 Guinness Six Nations.

3. FOR AWARENESS

Speak Up For Rugby's Core Values

Promoting the core values of the game and how to report any unacceptable behaviour via the RFU's Speak Up channels.

Video: Top Tips To Keep Your Game On

A reminder of how clubs and CBs have been successful in getting matches played via a mixture of approaches including Game On principles, flexible competitions and player/fixture exchanges.

News including LGBT+ history month, Young Match Officials, National Youth Council

Read about Nathan Power, 16, who combines playing and refereeing. Lancashire's Typhoons RUFC receives National Diversity Award. A chance for young people to join the National Youth Council and make an impact.

Teamwork

Respect

Enjoyment

Discipline

Sportsmanship

