To Club Contact

Somerset CB, once again, are happy to support clubs with a coaching subsidy for courses attended during the 2018/2019 season. The RFU provide an ever increasing number of CPD courses which all coaches should be encouraged to attend and this, combined with the Coaching qualification are the key support tools for our volunteer coaches so we are keen to support clubs in developing their skills.

The need for pitch side first aid cover is paramount to the safety and well being of our players so once again we will continue to contribute funding towards this essential training.

So how do you claim

- The subsidy payments will be paid during December 2018 for courses completed during the first half of the season and in April 2019 for courses completed during the second half of the season.
- Only courses that have actually occurred and during this current season can be claimed
- Each club will need to provide a single invoice for the total amount of subsidy they are claiming with details of the club account for the BACS payment
- To support proof of attendance -copy of the receipt/register from the RFU will be required
- Send invoice and proof of attendance to alison.bennett@somersetrfu.co.uk

Subsidy details

- Coaching qualification - 33% of fee
- C.P.D. courses 50% of cost
- First Aid £20 per attendee

I look forward to receiving applications, in the first instance in December, but please contact me if there are any questions prior to then.
